Though CIM serves students of all ages and all walks of life, we still offer evening classes exclusively – in order to cater for the needs of working individuals. We still put emphasis on combining theory and practice and remain committed to offering the best and most accessible education at the most affordable fees.

The Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) has acknowledged that the CIM Master in Human Resource Management fully aligns with SHRM's HR Curriculum Guidebook and Templates. Throughout the world, 474 programs in 359 educational institutions have been acknowledged by SHRM as being in alignment with its suggested guides and templates. The HR Curriculum Guidebook and Templates were developed by SHRM to define the minimum HR content areas that should be studied by HR students at the undergraduate and graduate levels. The guidelines -- created in 2006 and revalidated in 2010, 2013, and 2017-- are part of SHRM's Academic Initiative to define HR education standards taught in university business schools and help universities develop degree programs that follow these standards.

Apart from approval by SHRM, the CIM MSc HRM has been accredited by the Cyprus Quality Assurance Agency and is recognised by KYSATS.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Entry requirements are flexible and are based on a candidate's proven academic ability, motivation, experience as a manager or business executive, and an assessment of the benefits that he or she is likely to obtain from the programme. The usual minimum requirements are:

- / A Second Class Honours Bachelor Degree from an accredited University
- AND
- / English competency e.g. IELTS 6.0, GCSE C or equivalent qualification

DISSERTATION

A key requirement of the MSc. is a dissertation of 10,000 words, which must be submitted at the beginning of October or, in case the dissertation is found wanting further revision by the Business School's markers, by December. The dissertation must be of satisfactory standard and must contain original research work. Students may be required to present and defend their work to an examining panel. The 10,000-word dissertation is a major part of the MSc. and a student not submitting an up-to-standard dissertation will not be awarded the degree. The dissertation must be on a pre-agreed topic, (agreed with the student's tutor), and should have a research bias. Students are expected to begin work on their theses once exams are over in June. They must submit their work at the beginning of October of the same year. Students are allocated a tutor, who assists them in the early stages of research. The Business School encourages students to undertake studies that are of a current concern to a real organisation, preferably their own if employed.

The pass mark is 50% and students' final grades will be indicated on their transcript. In case the dissertation is not of an acceptable standard, students, may re-submit their work, by mid-December at the latest, at a cost of 200 Euros. If the dissertation is again found to be unsatisfactory, then the student will fail their MSc.
